Dear Students/Parents,

It seems as if the world as we know is changing daily and we need to be ready for it, we are doing our very best to maintain a sense of normalcy and also taking care of children academically and emotionally during this covid-19. 'Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection we can catch excellence', Teachers, school staff, families and specially students are adjusting to a new life, learning in a world where we are all staying learning and working at home in order to contain the spread of covid-19. You might be inclined to create a minute by minute schedule for your kids. You have high hopes of hours of learning, including online activities. We need to guide them and make them aware of how can we deal with covid-19. Our kids are just as scared as we are right now. Our kids not only can hear everything that is going on around them, but they feel our constant tension. What kids need right now is to feel comforted and loved. To feel like it's all going to be ok. And that might mean that you tear up your perfect schedule and love on your kids a bit more. Don't worry about them. Every single kid is in this boat and they all will be ok. When we are back in the classroom, we will all course correct and meet them where they are. Teachers are experts at this! Children need encouragement not nagging

- ❖ After long online classes and learning we are moving for a short break with some creative work to engage our mover, learner and flyers. *'Innovation and motivation is the fuel necessary to keep the human engine running'. But dear children, there is a lot more you can do to make your vacations more interesting, meaningful and full of fun. It will surely prepare you for a better and more fruitful year ahead.

The role of the parent is to be a facilitator and guide to steer the child in the right direction. He will find his own destination.
  - ❖ Follow the guidelines given by teachers to complete specific activities. Share your activities with your friends/ family. Above all, now is the time you can show your parents how much you love them.
